

create the best possible public use space in a public setting recreation, we need to meet the needs of the community (skateboarders, seniors, etc) we need to provide opportunities for recreation convertible such as basketball to pickle ball to art show or community meeting; versatility in such as space to allow for multiple uses, there are many examples.

Multi and intergenerational deed restriction should be upheld historic intent and needs of the future. Recreation can be a wide range of events and opportunities examples would be a rock concert, art show, farmers market, basketball court, tennis, banquet dinner. These all represent recreational activities.

really representative of 'playground': converting the space from concert to basketball to art show to banquet dinner.

we are a part of an overall composition of uses and it is important to think in terms of collaborating, cooperate, complementing and not duplicate existing successful facilities about the interpretation of the intent of statement made almost 100 years ago to how it applies to contemporary society and the inevitable changes which have occurred over the 100 years. We need to think about needs now and into the next 50 to 100 years.

strategic plan, specifically the goal calling for the increase the vitality. strategic plan, specifically the goal calling for the increase the vitality.

public spaces define the character of a city; and since the beginning of time public markets have been a park of cities; public squares enhance livability and anchor to downtown development.

an urban village, although not urban compared to other large metropolitan areas, we are surrounded by farmland.

physical health, mental health and community health to provide a safe recreational facility where all people can play together in all seasons be free to residents while being economically self-sustainin

VISIONS

Provide stewardship of our county's natural, cultural, and historical resources. Foster the need of our citizens for recreational pursuits in a leisure environment.

Provide the highest standard of excellence in public service through cooperative partnership with our diverse community.

enrich lives through quality parks

we create community through people and parks

Through provision of recreation and parks services, we enhance the quality of life and nurture the health and well-being of our people, our community, our environment and our economy