

AGENDA ITEM 3.

Ms. Brovan suggested the Commission gather information about community safety concerns, such as lighting. Mr. Mills discussed crime or lighting as part of larger, broader issues, but expressed interest in hearing from the community what their concerns were.

Ms. Poischbeg mentioned the City's "report a concern" webpage as a place for citizens to connect directly with the City. This was the proper course of action rather than vetting through the Commission. She also used the example of criminal activity going to the Police Department.

Ms. Poischbeg shared a community engagement tool "Bang the Table", survey tools, newsletters, and joining the "Coffee with the Mayor" from time to time as possible outreach options.

Ms. Eidem provided background of the Housing Sales and Use Tax and explained the City's intentions to develop a group of stakeholders to help staff determine best use of the funds. She inquired if anyone from the Commission would like to join the group. Mr. Mills volunteered, with Ms. Brovan as an alternate.
